CROSSING THE BORDER

Some Christians know the exact date they received Jesus as Savior. Others come to faith through a gradual process; they can't say precisely when they became a disciple.

Nor man Warren (How Do I Face Life's Uncertainty?) tells of meeting refugees who'd fled horrible circumstances and crossed into Austria. One woman had left Yugoslavia after her parents died of starvation. At the Austrian border she was given a visa stamped with the date and time of her entry, so she could always name the exact moment she stepped into her new life.

Another refugee had journeyed over the mountains from Communist Russia. He didn't know precisely when he crossed the invisible border line, but when he arrived at an Austrian village, he knew for certain he was free.

God leads people into new life in various ways. We travel different routes but – thanks be to God! – our final destination is the same.
