Today God Is First

MORE THAN SKIN DEEP

Gratitude, said Martin Luther, is "the basic Christian attitude." Yet gratitude is much more than a state of mind. Often it's a decision, and it becomes an act of humility when we recognize our depravity - and our need for a Savior.

The 10 disgraced lepers who beg Jesus for mercy (see Luke 17: 11-1) are described as allogenes, Greek for "outcast." (All humans, sick with sin, fit that descriptions!) The leper who returned to give thanks received more than just physical healing, according to Scripture. When Jesus says, "Your faith has made you well," He uses the Greek that means "Your faith has saved you." The grateful leper, recognizing his depravity, humbly decides to return and give thanks, knowing - through faith - that his skin and his soul have been healed.

Good Morning! Welcome! Together, let us worship Christ our King, who is robed in majesty. (Psalm 93:1).
